Dear Parents and Children of the Choir,

I hope that this letter finds you well. We are in such strange times at the moment but at least the sun is shining. I hope that you have carried on singing and enjoying music whilst not being at school. Singing is so good for our happiness and will help keep your chin up whilst we are all in this time of lockdown.

Yesterday, I received an email from the people organising our concert at the Royal Albert Hall to say that, unfortunately, the event was having to be postponed whilst the country is still dealing with the current pandemic. I know that this will be disappointing for lots of you but the good news is that they will be putting another date in the diary for this to happen once we are all back at school. I will let you know more details about the concert at Royal Albert Hall as soon as they are sent through to me.

Also, during this time, Armonico Consort are going to be doing a weekly session called Sing N Shine. It is at 2pm each Wednesday on their YouTube channel <https://www.youtube.com/user/ArmonicoConsort>.

Yours sincerely

Mrs Easthope
